

People connecting and creating friendships through the rotating shelter

By Sheehan Mehall

It has been nearly 10 years since a low-income family in Ann Arbor was able to afford a place to stay. The Rotating Shelter with assistance from the community is still active.

Each week, 200 individuals and families are housed in the shelter. The shelter is a rotating shelter, meaning that each week a different group of people stays there. A Countywide bus system?

By David Miller

It's a question that has been asked many times over the years. A countywide bus system would provide a much-needed service to the residents of Washtenaw County.
